A Magical Wedding Awaits at Saudé Creek Vineyards

ROLLING HILLS, FIELDS OF VINES, TREETOPS AND RIVER VIEWS MAKE THE PERFECT BACKDROP FOR YOUR BIG DAY

by Kelley Thomas

So far, so picturesque. Intimate setting with breath-taking views, your favorite people surrounding you and delicious wines that are the perfect complement to your wedding celebration.

Saudé Creek Vineyards first opened its doors in 2005 and started offering weddings the very next year. With staff that like family who mean business as part of their own, it's no surprise that they're able to consistently welcome new brides and grooms for their big day.

They allow up to 120 guests and their wedding is a total affair where couples have the freedom to bring their vision to life and make it truly their own. Owner and Winemaker James Knight is also a professional photographer, so the grounds are kept lively and beautiful all year round. Plus, with the view being one of the highest points in the East, it presents the relaxing feeling of being in the mountains. The rolling hills, fields of vines, vineyard and river views will have your guests talking and asking and will make it easy for your photographer to capture the natural beauty of your big day.

With a base price that includes bartenders and tons of add-on options available, each Saudé Creek wedding is entirely customizable. Furniture is separated from the venue to allow couples flexibility to move around in their design style and while their lounge arch is one of their most popular, they have a variety of other options. Professional style full weddings are some of the most common that they see, but no matter what time of year you plan to get married or what kind of wedding trends you're after, Saudé Creek is the place to do it.
